Text: First Born, Baby Shamu and Mother Kandu

Eleventh in a series of International Murals dedicated to Marine Mammals.

At 6:21 p.m. on September 26, 1985, Kandu, a female killer whale, gave birth to a 350 lb. Baby girl at SeaWorld of Florida. For the First time in history, the birth of a killer whale calf in a zoological environment was successful. Environmentalist artist Wyland chose to recognize this special event by painting a portrait of Baby Shamu and her mother.

Internationally acclaimed, Wyland has traveled throughout the world painting life-size whale portraits. Wyland calls his work :The Art of Saving Whales." Wyland's 12 foot by 20 foot painting of first born Baby Shamu and mother Kandu is his own gift to this special baby who has make such a significant contribution to the preservation of her species for generations yet to come.

Gift of Wm. E. Evans
