Looking around we sense
Such acceleration, such.
Progression. It knows
No bounds. The seed of
Time yields a harvest
Of change and a host
Of possibility. Every
New face brings new
Hope --- new influences.

What'd you put in his coffee, Doc?

Line Handlers, bow . . .

ETC.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA

City of history, and the first foreign port, which meant changing dollars to dollars (that made sense — to an Aggie). Apart from the regular sightseeing trips, there are special memories of a ride on the Bluenose II, $10 lobster plates under the Blue Tent, bicycling through the countryside. A town crier to welcome the Clipper, Schooner Beer, clean streets (fancy that!), and many others too numerous to mention. They, like the city, won't be forgotten.

To Halifax

Bridge to Dartmouth, sister city.

Son of a gun!

The Bluenose II, gaff-rigged schooner; pride of Canada.

Famous last words: "Tide? What tide?"

The only lighthouse/post office, Peggy's Cove.

Don't worry, Captain;
I can explain everything.
Yes, Mr. Haupt — please do!

We dove the reefs, the water clear.
Palancar's depths were ever so near.
Smiling faces; and friendly folks, too.
Tropical gardens, forever, grew.
For souvenirs, we shopped all day.
Carlos and Charlie's, a cozy cafe.
The cool sea breeze, its lovely smell.
Five wonderful days in Cozumel.

The Clipper picked up her pilot at Sabine Pass, then started on the long, slow trip up-river, to the pier by the Hilton. For a week everyone sâmpled the attractions of the city. Window shopping around the Square, picking out exotic fruits at the farmer's market, taking a break at the Cafe du Monde; tearing up the French Quarter by night, then recuperating the next day at the Stella Maris seamen's center. Some took an early departure — the rest stayed on board as the Clipper, with a fresh coat of paint, cast off for Freeport.

Gull's-eye view.

STUDENT LIFE

AND ACTIVITIES

B-2 tree

Decorated doors brightened the halls.

CHRISTMAS

The spirit of Christmas was expressed in many ways here at A&M. A variety of trees in all shapes, sizes, and decor were seen throughout the campus. Doors, decked with festive scenes and gay colors, brightened the halls in the dorms. The Christmas dance, sponsored by the Dorm Association, was a hit with students and faculty alike. In spite of the impending threat of finals, the mood was happy and full of good will.

TROPICAL EVENING PARADISE

Both students and faculty enjoyed the Tropical Evening Paradise at Seawolf Park. The event was jointly sponsored by the Dorm Association, A.S.M.E., the Sail Club, and S.M.U.T. In addition to dinner, (provided by Mr. Newlin and crew), dancing, games, and refreshments were available. Top: Everyone settles down to enjoy the evening. Middle: (left to right) As D.J., Frank takes a song request; "Stinky" and Vicki "Get down." Bottom: Guests dance to a variety of music

Step 1: Attack!

Step 2: The big dump.

Step 3: Mission accomplished.

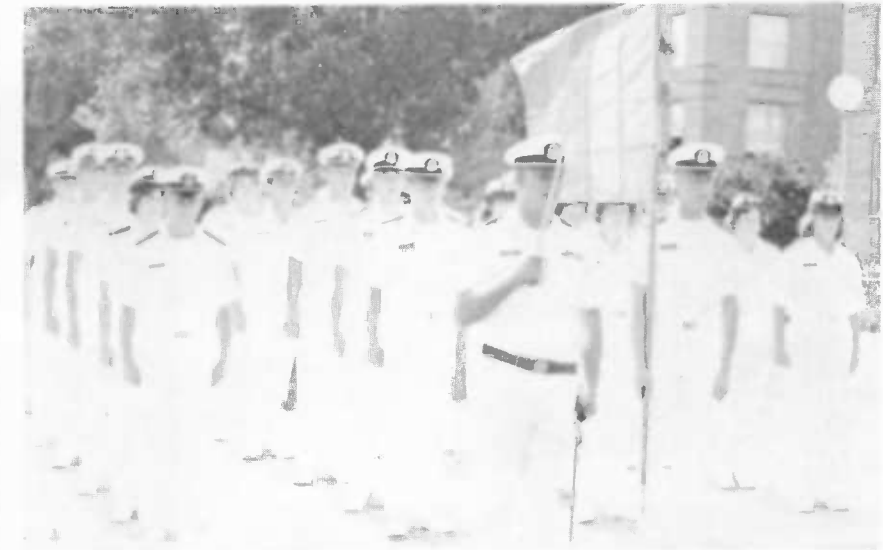

The corps offers an opportunity to go the extra mile. It is an organization charged with placing responsibilities on the shoulders of its members above and beyond classroom instruction. It attempts to mold a person's character and self discipline with the purpose of enhancing success potential in the American Merchant Marine. However, the corps is not all work and no play; It can also be a lot of fun.

Janet Fannin - President

Throughout the year, our Dorm Association sponsored a host of activities. For only five dollars per semester, the Association's members recieved free admission to the functions, which included the Christmas dance, the Tropical Evening Paradise, a beach party, a backgammon tournament, and the Chili Cook-off. The organization also provided its members with donuts at finals time. If not for the hard work and dedication of this group of people, this year would have been less eventful.

KARATE

The T.A.M.U.G. Karate Club finally got rolling this year(1981) due to the time consuming efforts of its first office officers and about twenty people with the urge to "kick things." The club is composed of all karate styles, although there were only two this year; Shorin Ryu and Tae Kwon Do. The schools representing these classes were the Chinese Tae Kwon Do Association and South Texas Shorin Ryu.

Members of the club, pictured here, are . . . SOFTBALL

Oops! Should have put a string on that kite!

In the championship game, the Wharf Rats beat the Muff-Divers 7 to 6 in ten innings, and finished the season undefeated.

*The Good

To be able . . .

To walk lightheartedly into each day
carrying no needless burden.

To enjoy the comforts and

In closing, I'd like to take a little space to thank those who helped put this book together. If the page lay-outs reflected the credit due, the majority of this book would be acknowledgements. Convention rules, however, and I'm limited to one page.

The Student Affairs Department sponsors this whole mess — Bill, Bev, and Randy deserve notice for their welcomed assistance throughout the year. Special thanks go to Mrs. Sharon Gentine and her husband, for hosting the staff's first business meeting.

I owe a personal debt of gratitude to Amy and Shelley, for stepping in and finishing the book. It wouldn't have gone to press without them.

Of course, there are always those unlisted individuals who volunteer their services — and photographs. Thanks to each of you for your help, especially with the ad sales.

Good luck to next year's staff.
