

STATE GOVERNMENT

The Journal of State Affairs

Published Quarterly by the Council of State Governments

Volume XLVI: SUMMER, 1973: Number 3

Contents

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION
Perspective and Introduction H. Milton Patton	134
LAND USE IN DEVELOPMENT ISSUES
Winter Games: An Olympian Conflict
An Affirmative View John D. Vanderhoof	136
An Opponent's View Richard D. Lamm	138
Seacoast and Superports
Another Giant for Texas?
. Joe L. Allbritton and Joe B. Harris	141
A Supercatch for the Pelican State? P. J. Mills	144
COMPONENTS OF STATE LAND USE POLICY
Land Use: The National Environmental Strategy
. Rogers C. B. Morton	148
The Management Challenge of Land and Water
Resources Planning Robert H. Marden	152
Designing a State Land Use Program Philip M. Savage	156
Why a State Role for Land Use? William S. James	164
STATE EXPERIENCE IN LAND USE POLICY
Oregon: Come Visit but Don't Stay Tom McCall	167
An Evaluation: Florida's Land Use Law . . . Richard G. RuBino	172
Washington: The Legislative Land Planning Commission
The Change in Legislative Climate Richard U. Chapin	180
An Evaluation of the Commission Process
. Ronald L. McConnell and John L. Robertson	183
It All Began in Hawaii Shelley M. Mark	188
Vermont: Public Support For Land Use Controls
. Thomas P. Salmon	196
OVERVIEW
An Interesting Beginning Richard H. Slavin	201

Robert H. Weber
EDITOR

Ralph J. Marcelli
ASSOCIATE EDITOR

State Government is published quarterly by the Council of State Governments, Iron Works Pike, Lexington, Kentucky 40505. It is a forum for the discussion of governmental problems of interest to its readers. The views expressed by its contributors are not necessarily the views of the Council of State Governments. Address communications to State Government, Iron Works Pike, Lexington, Kentucky 40505. Reprints are available at cost. Copies of State Government are available at $2.00 each. Annual subscription is $7.00. Copyright 1973 by the Council of State Governments. Second class postage paid at Lexington, Kentucky and at additional mailing offices. Postmaster: Send Form 3579 to P.O. Box 5377, Lexington, Kentucky 40505.