Foreign Visitors

Germany is the dominant foreign market in Stockholm, followed by Great Britain, the US and Norway. Most major nationalities among the visitors to Stockholm are European.

Over the past three years, markets in Asia have grown by over 60 per cent. This may be compared to a 24 per cent increase for North and South America and a decline of 4 per cent for Europe outside Scandinavia.

Notably, in 2013 Indian visitors accounted for more guest nights than visitors from China.

More than 31 million overnight stays were made in various forms of accommodation in Stockholm County. This is a new record for overnight stays in Stockholm and an increase of 11 per cent compared to 2012. The increase was mainly due to an increase of overnight stays with friends and relatives and overnight stays in weekend cottages.

Close to 11 million were overnight stays in commercial accommodations, like hotels, hostels, vacation villages and camping sites.

The number of day trips (over 10 km) were relatively unchanged from the previous year

Length of Stay

Average number of nights spent by visitors in different types of accommodation in Stockholm County and City, 2013

Visitors who stay overnight in Stockholm spend an average of 2.4 nights here. Guests at camping sites, privately rented cottages and pleasure boats stay significantly longer, 4.0 nights on average.

Commercial Accommodations

The increase in commercial guest nights compared to 2012 is due to the growing number of guest nights at hotels. Other forms of accommodation have decreased. At camping sites in the county, overnight stays increased for domestic guests while significantly fewer foreign visitors chose to stay overnight at camping facilities.

Commercial Accommodation – Vacation villages

Most vacation villages are located in the Stockholm Archipelago and they almost exclusively attract Swedish visitors.

The capacity, in terms of the average number of available rooms per day, has increased in the last two years. Seasonal fluctuations are considerable.

The number of rooms sold did not increase as much as the capacity in 2013. Capacity utilization stopped at 36 per cent. Revenues rose considerably to just under SEK 19 million.

International Meetings and Conventions

Stockholm is one of the world's most popular international convention destinations.

International Meetings and Conventions

Stockholm is ranked number 22 of the 44 biggest cities in the world in terms of the numbers of congress delegates attending association meetings. The statistics are based on numbers of delegates attending meetings organized by international associations which take place on a regular basis and which rotate between a minimum of three countries.

One reason is that Stockholm has excellent capacity for meetings and conventions. It is home to Stockholmsmässan, northern Europe's largest convention facility, the Stockholm City Conference Centre, Kistamässan, the Brewery and Stockholm Waterfront Congress Centre with its spectacular architecture in the heart of Stockholm.
